RULES & REGULATIONS

LIQUID HONEY

Class 1-2 Liquid Honey

ANY COLOUR

Honey exhibited in classes 1-6 must be shown in a standard trade jar. The jar must be a round (not panelled) 375ml, unlabelled and in a clear glass with a metal lid (gold, white or black). The jar must contain 500g net weight of honey.

Liquid honey is judged on elements including flavour, density, colour, aroma, clearness and brightness.

Natural granulated and creamed honey is judged on evenness of grain, flavour, firmness and colour.

Class 3: Granulated Honey, fine grain

1 Jar.

Class 4: Granulated Honey, coarse grain

1 Jar.

Class 5: Floating Comb

Comb in liquid Honey (Chunk Honey). Piece of comb (approx. 110mm x 40mm) in liquid honey, both to be from the same floral source.

Class 6: Creamed Honey

1 Jar.

BEESWAX

Only pure beeswax is to be used, no colouring or decorative features.

Beeswax Candles receive points for appearance, burn response & wick, ease of lighting, feel, and cleanliness. The entry must be of the year of entry and not have been presented for judging before. Entries will be marked.

Class 7: Beeswax – light yellow

Not less than 500g in one block.

Class 8 Dark Beeswax

Not less than 500g in one block.

Class 9: Beeswax Sculpture

COMB HONEY

Class 11: Cut Comb (Comb Honey)

One section not less than 250g with no borders or decorative edges. Displayed in a sealed clear container so to be judged on all surfaces and prevent leakages.

All awards are presented at the Honey Festival, Sunday 28 May 23 at 1 pm. The entry collection starts after the award ceremony. Entries not collected by the end of the day will be donated to a community organisation. Each entry is judged and marked accordingly to the regulations above and participants are encouraged to enclose a stamped and addressed envelope (1 envelope per participant) to receive their marking sheet/s. All entry numbers are placed on the honey jar/container lid or marked clearly visible on the wax/sculptor box/wrapping. It is your responsibility to check that;

1. your entry numbers are correctly placed
2. your name, address and all entry numbers are listed on the entry sheet & return envelope

We thank you for the support, passion and pride you demonstrate with your entry and wish you best of luck for a successful outcome! We thank you for your respect to all the volunteers who make this event wonderful as it is!
