Honey Cake Competition | Conditions of Entry

The entrant may submit one honey cake with recipe. The cake is to be

- made according to the recipe supplied. For cakes being submitted in the iced category, the icing should be honey-based icing. If cake contains nuts it must be labelled so.
- Entries will be brought to the festival until 11 am on Sunday, May 28 2023.
- No late entries will be accepted.
- All cakes will be tasted and will be judged on appearance, uniformity, moistness, texture, aroma and flavour. Judges reserve the right to disqualify any entry that they deem to be potentially unsafe to eat. Any additions or changes will disqualify entry. Absolutely no flavouring agents are to be added to the recipe.
- Cake will be first tasted by Chef Jo and then the public will have the opportunity to also vote by purchasing markers and these will be used for voting. The cake with the most markers will win followed by 2nd and 3rd place.
- Winners announcement is at 12 pm and will each be awarded a prize.
- Entries and platters will not be returned – ensure entry is on a disposable platter.
